Explain the concept of lifelong learning and why it is important in Australia today.

In your answer, discuss the people who do not usually access lifelong learning and suggest ways that they could be encouraged to participate in it.